

Touch of Blessing Ramadan

PREPARING FOR RAMADAN WITH 65 QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

STUDY ABOUT RAMADAN & FASTING

1. Why fasting has been prescribed for us and those before us?
 - A. O you who believe! Observing as-Sawm (the fasting) is prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you, that you may become al-Muttaqoon (the pious). [Surah Baqarah:183] Allaah has obligated fasting upon the believers as He had obligated it upon those before them (from the Jews and the Christians) for that which exists therein of benefits in this world and the Hereafter.
2. Are days of fasting limited? If so, how many days are you required to fast?
 - A. The days of fasting are limited and do not exceed thirty (30) days.
3. What is the ruling of Fasting for one who is ill and for one who is on a journey?
 - A. It is permissible for the one who is ill and (also for) the traveler to abstain from fasting and thereby make up those days missed as a result, after Ramadhaan.
4. What part of the aya has been abrogated? What was the result of this abrogation?
 - A. And as for those who can fast with difficulty, (e.g. an old man), they have (a choice either to fast or) to feed a Miskeen (needy person) (for every day). [Surah Baqarah: 184] It used to be that one could choose between fasting in Ramadhaan or paying fidyah (instead of fasting), and this was then abrogated, and fasting became obligatory.
5. What does this aya show, “The month of Ramadhaan in which was revealed the Qur.aan, a guidance for mankind and clear proofs for the guidance and the Criterion (between right and wrong). [Surah Baqarah: 185]”?
 - A. The aayahs mention the excellence of the month of Ramadhaan and the excellence of the Qur.aan which Allaah revealed in Ramadhaan. Since the revelation occurred from up above to mankind below, then this is indicative of Allaah's Loftiness above His Throne, as the aayahs and the authentic ahaadeeth have mentioned.
6. When was Qur’an revealed?
 - A. The month of Ramadhaan in which was revealed the Qur.aan, a guidance for mankind and clear proofs for the guidance and the Criterion (between right and wrong). [Surah Baqarah: 185]
7. Upon whom the fasting of Ramadan is obligatory? Upon whom it is not obligatory?
 - A. Fasting is obligatory upon whoever sights the moon for the beginning of the month of Ramadhaan, except for one who is ill or the traveller. So, whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadhaan, i.e. is present at his home), he must observe Sawm (fasts) that month, and whoever is ill or on a journey, the same number [of days which one did not observe Sawm (fasts) must be made up] from other days. [Surah Baqarah: 185]
8. How many are the Pillars of Islam? What are they?
 - A. Pillars of Islam are Five: 1. Testify to Laa ilaha ill Allah, Muhammad Rasul Allah. 2. To establish Prayers. 3. To give Zakah. 4. To Fasting Ramadan. 5. To Make Hajj.
9. What is the meaning if “laa ilaha ill allah”?
 - A. That none is truly worthy of worship except Allaah (alone).

10. How are you supposed to establish prayers?
 - A. To perform the (obligatory five daily) prayers with tranquility, awareness and full-concentration
11. How do you give Zakah for gold and money?
 - A. If the Muslims own 85 grams of gold or that which is equivalent in terms of money, then he is required to extract 2.5% of this value once a year of ownership has passed. As for other items, then the rates differ accordingly.
12. What is fasting?
 - A. To refrain from food and drink and sexual intercourse and all other specified things from the time of Fajr until the time of Maghrib.
13. Who is obligated to make Hajj?
 - A. For whoever is physically and financially able to do so.
14. During Ramadan, what happens to Jannah, Jahannam, and Shaytan?

15. During Ramadan, what the one who desires for good and evil suppose to do? And what does Allah do with people of fire?
 - A. A caller would call out: "O you who want good, proceed, and O you who want evil, cease. Allaah frees people from the fire, and this is done every night until ramadaan is over" [Hasan, at-Tirmidhee]
16. How the reward of fasting differs from all other good deeds rewards?
 - A. The reward for) all the actions of the son of Aadam are multiplied (from anywhere between) ten times to seven hundred times except for fasting, then it is for Me and I will give reward for it; He left off his desires and his food for My sake. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
17. What are two pleasures for the fasting person?
 - A. For the fasting person there are two pleasures: his pleasure at the time of breaking his fast and his pleasure when he meets his Lord.
18. What is the status of smell coming out of the mouth of the fasting person in the sight of Allah?
 - A. And the smell emanating from the mouth of the one who is fasting is better in the Sight of Allaah than the smell of musk. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
19. Why did Allah made fasting obligatory upon us?
 - A. Allaah has made fasting obligatory upon us so that we worship Him doing so; (therefore) so that your fast is acceptable and beneficial (to you).
20. During Ramadan especially, what are you suppose to protect and maintain as is required of you?
 - A. Be wary of protecting your prayers: Many people who are fasting are slack in maintaining their prayers despite it being a pillar of the religion, and leaving it is from (the acts of) kufr

- B. Maintain good manners: Be wary of falling into kufr and cursing the religion, and ill manners towards the people, particularly whilst fasting. Fasting purifies the inner self and does not lead to ill manners, and kufr renders the Muslim outside the fold of the religion
- C. Do not go to sleep too late and as a result miss out on the sahoor (pre-dawn meal) and the Salaatul-Fajr. Try to maintain an early start to your work, as the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: ((O Allaah bless my Ummah in that which they maintain of an early start)); [Saheeh, Ahmad]
- D. Maintain the fast of Ramadhaan and prepare your children to fast as soon as you feel they are capable, and beware of breaking the fast without an Islaamically valid reason. Whoever intentionally breaks his fast any day then he is required to make up that day and repent.
21. During Ramadan especially, what you should leave off and not do as is required of you?
- A. Do not speak unnecessarily even if you are joking, as this will reduce the reward of your fast. Take note of what the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alahe wa sallam) said: If any of you are fasting, then abstain from ignorant and indecent speech that day; and if anyone curses you or strikes you, then say: I am fasting. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
- B. Benefit from the fast by leaving off smoking, which causes cancer and ulcers; Try to maintain your willpower and leave off smoking in the evening just as you left it during the day. As a result, you will be better off in health as well as financially.
- C. Be wary of divulging in excessive eating at the time of breaking the fast, as it can result in ruining the benefit of the fast and harming your health.
- D. Do not go to the cinema or watch television, so that you do not see that which will spoil your fast and ruin its effect.
22. During Ramadan especially, what should you increase in and read about as is required of you?
- A. Increase in giving in charity to your relatives and those who are needy; visit your relatives (to maintain family ties) and clear up any disputes and misunderstandings that may exist.
- B. Increase in the remembrance of Allaah and recite the Qur.aan, listen to it and reflect upon its meaning and act according to it. Go to the masaajid to listen to beneficial talks; and doing the i'tikaaf in the masjid during the last ten days and nights of Ramadhaan is from the Sunnah
- C. Read around the subject of fasting so as to learn its rulings. You will then come to know that eating and drinking forgetfully does not break the fast. Also, having sexual intercourse during the night does not prevent anyone from fasting.
23. During Ramadan, what you must be aware of which is required of you?
- A. Beware from eating (and drinking during the day) in Ramadhaan, and beware of openly doing so in front of the people, for indeed doing so is tantamount to fearlessness of Allaah, making a mockery of Islaam, and brazenness in front of the people. So know that whoever does not fast, then he has no right to celebrate the 'Eed since 'Eed is a major celebration upon the culmination of the fasting and anticipation for the acceptance of one's worship.

24. Who doesn't have right to 'Eed? Why?

- A. Whoever does not fast, then he has no right to celebrate the 'Eed since 'Eed is a major celebration upon the culmination of the fasting and anticipation for the acceptance of one's worship.

25. Why should you protect your tongue during fasting especially?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Whoever does not abandon evil speech and actions, then Allaah is not in need of him having left his food and drink. [Saheeh al-Bukhaaree].

26. What food should you use to break fast?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said, "When any of you break your fast, then do so with dry dates, for indeed it is a blessing. And if you are unable to find dry dates, then water, for verily it is pure." [Saheeh, at-Tirmidhee]

27. What is the Dua should you say at the time of breaking fast?

- A. الْعُرُوقُ، وَ تَبَّتَ الْأَجْرُ إِنْ شَاءَ اللَّهُ ذَهَبَ الظَّمَاءُ وَ ابْتَلَّتِ (The thirst has gone and the veins are moistened, and reward is confirmed, if Allah wills.) [Hasan, Abu Daawood]

28. Should you hasten to break the fast? Why so?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The people will remain in good so long as they hasten to break the fast (at its appointed time). [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

29. Why should you take Sahoor – pre-dawn meal?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Take the sahoor (pre-dawn meal), for indeed in the sahoor there is blessing. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

30. Should you feed the one fasting? If so, why?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Whoever provides (food or water) for a fasting person (to break his fast at the appointed time), then for him is the reward similar to that of his (the fasting person) without any reducing in the reward of the fasting person. [Saheeh al-Bukhaaree]

31. What are some spiritual benefits of fasting?

- A. Allaah (Subhaanahu wa Ta'aala) says: {O you who believe, fasting has been prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you so that you may attain taqwa} [Soorah al-Baqarah, Aayah 183].
- B. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: ((Fasting is protection)), i.e. protection from the Fire of Hell. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
- C. And he (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: ((Whoever fasts Ramadhaan with eemaan while believing in its obligation and being hopeful for the reward, all that has preceded of his sins shall be forgiven)). [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

- D. Fasting is a purification of the soul, and accustoming it upon good, worship, patience and sincerity.
32. What are some social and health benefits that come about from fasting?
- A. Fasting allows the body's digestive system and the stomach to rest allowing the body to recuperate and strengthen. This is beneficial for many ailments. Likewise, fasting allows the smoker to take a break from smoking and in doing so assists him in abandoning it.
- B. The fasting person feels a sense of equality with the rest of his fasting brothers (and sisters); So he fasts with them allowing for the feeling of sincere Islaamic brotherhood to be nurtured. Likewise, he feels hungry, as a result of which he gives charity to his hungry and needy brothers (and sisters).
33. What are the days on which it is Recommended to fast?
- A. Fasting the six days of Shawwaal, as the Prophet (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Whoever fasts Ramadhaan and then follows it up with (any) six (days of fasting) in Shawwaal, then it would be as if he has fasted the (whole) year. [Saheeh Muslim] The scholars have noted that each good deed is rewarded by ten (10), and therefore fasting the month of Ramadhaan is equivalent to fasting ten (10) months, and the six (6) days being equivalent to two (2) months; So the total sum is equivalent to twelve (12) months (i.e. a year).
- B. Fasting the ninth day of Dhul-Hijjah, the day of 'Arafah - for those not performing the Hajj. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The fast on the day of 'Arafah is an expiation for (the sins of) two years: the previous (year) and the following (year), and the fast of the day of 'Aashooraa is an expiation for (the sins of) the previous year. [Saheeh Muslim] Once, the Messenger of Allaah was brought some laban and he drank it whilst he was addressing the people in 'Arafah, and he (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: There are no days in which righteous actions are more beloved to Allaah than these days (i.e. the ten (10) days of Dhul-Hijjah. It was said: O Messenger of Allaah, not even jihaad in the path of Allaah? He said: Not even jihaad in the path of Allaah, except for a man who leaves (for jihaad) with his wealth and does not return with anything of it. [Saheeh al-Bukhaaree]
- C. The fast of the Day of 'Aashooraa., including the day before or the day after. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Indeed this is the Day of 'Aashooraa., and it has not been prescribed (obligated) upon you to fast it. However, I am fasting, and whoever wishes to fast may do so and whoever wishes to refrain from doing so, may do so. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim] And the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) also said: And if I remain until the following year, then indeed I will fast the ninth (of Muharram along with the 10th (day of 'Aashooraa). [Saheeh Muslim]
- D. Fasting most of Sha'baan. The Messenger of Allaah used to fast most of Sha'baan. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
- E. The fast of (every) Monday and Thursday. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The actions (of the son of Adam) are presented (before Allaah) (every) Monday and Thursday, and I like it that my actions are presented whilst I am fasting. [Saheeh, an-Nasaa.ee.]

- F. Fasting the days of al-Biyadh, as one of the Sahaabah (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhu) said: The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) encouraged us to fast (every) month the three days of the full moon, the thirteenth, the fourteenth and the fifteenth. [Hasan, an-Nasaa.ee]
- G. The fast of Prophet Daawood ('alayhis-salaam), i.e. fasting every other day. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The most beloved fast to Allaah is the fast of Daawood, and the most beloved prayer to Allaah is the prayer of Daawood. He used to sleep half the night and stand for prayer for a third of the night and used to sleep a sixth of the night, and he used to fast every other day. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
34. What are the day's one is Prohibited to fast?
- A. The two 'Eed days, namely: al-Fitr ad al-Adh.haa; as 'Umar ibn al-Khattaab (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhu) said: Verily, the Messenger of Allaah prohibited fasting on these two days, the day of al-Fitr from Ramadhaan and the other day on which you eat whilst carrying out your (hajj) rites), i.e. 'Eed al-Adh.haa. [Saheeh Muslim]
- B. The days of Tashreeq, and they are the 11th, 12th and 13th days of Dhul-Hijjah. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) sent 'Abdullaah ibn Hudhaafah (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhu) around Minaa saying: Do not fast these days, for indeed they are the days for eating and drinking and remembering Allaah ('Azza wa Jall). [Saheeh, Ahmad] And the ones excused from this prohibition are those who are performing the Tamattu' or al-Qiraan hajj, but have no means to offer the obligatory sacrifice.
- C. The menstrual and post partum bleeding days with respect to women. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Is it not that when she is on her menses, she does not pray nor fast? Then this is the deficiency in her religion?. [Saheeh al-Bukhaaree]
- D. The wife fasting whilst in the presence of her husband, unless she has sought his permission. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: A woman is not to fast whilst in the presence of her husband, except with his permission, not including (the fast of) Ramadhaan. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
35. What are the days on which it is Disliked to fast?
- A. The one performing hajj fasting on the day of 'Arafah. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The day of 'Arafah and the day of Nahr and the days of Tashreeq are the (days of) 'Eed for the Muslims, and they are the days for eating and drinking. [Saheeh, Abu Daawood]
- B. Singling the day of Jumu'ah (Friday) out for fasting. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Do not fast the day of Jumu'ah (Friday), unless you fast a day before it (also) or the day after it (also). [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

- C. Singling the day of Saturday out for fasting. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Do not fast the day of Saturday, unless it is an obligatory fast upon you, and even if any of you were to find only grape skin or a wooden stick, then chew it. [Saheeh, Ahmad]
- D. Fasting the entire year without missing a day. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Whoever fasts the (entire) year, then neither has he fasted nor has he not fasted. [Saheeh, transmitted by an-Nasaa.ee]
- E. Fasting two days or more simultaneously without breaking the fast after the first day. This is what is called "al-wisaal". The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Beware of al-wisaal, i.e. do not fast the fast of al-wisaal. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim] And the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) also said: Do not fast continuously. Whoever amongst you wishes to fast continuously then do so for a day (only). [Saheeh al-Bukhaaree]
- F. Fasting the day of doubt, which is the 30th day of Sha'baan. 'Amaar ibn Yaasir (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhu) said: Whoever fasts the day on which there is doubt (as to whether Ramadhaan has begun or not), then he has gone against (the guidance of) Abul-Qaasim (Muhammad (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam)). [Abu Daawood] And the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Do not precede Ramadhaan by fasting a day or two days before it, except for the person who regularly fasts. [Saheeh Muslim]
36. Who are the people excused from fasting during Ramadan?
- A. One who is ill and the traveler. It is upon them to make up (for any) days (of fasting in Ramadhaan they missed). Allaah (Subhaanahu wa Ta'aala) says: [Observing Sawm (fasts)] for a fixed number of days, but if any of you is ill or on a journey, the same number (should be made up) from other days. And as for those who can fast with difficulty, (e.g. an old man), they have (a choice either to fast or) to feed a Miskeen (needy person) (for every day). But whoever does good of his own accord, it is better for him. And that you fast is better for you if only you know. [Soorah al-Baqarah: 184] As for the ill person who is suffering from an illness from which a cure is not anticipated, then he is required to feed a poor and needy person for every day he misses (of fasting in Ramadhaan).
- B. A woman on her menses or post-parum bleeding, then it is upon her to make up (for any) days she misses (of fasting in Ramadhaan). 'Aa.ishah (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhaa) said: We (the women on their menses or post-partum bleeding) were commanded to make up (for any days of) fasting (in Ramadhaan we missed), and were not commanded to make up for (any) prayers (missed). 43. What should you do during the last ten nights of Ramadan especially?
- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam): When the final ten nights or Ramadhaan arrived he used spend the night awake and awaken his family, and exert himself (in worship) and tighten his waist belt. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim] Note: ((tighten his waist belt)) is a manner of speech implying he used to exert himself in worship.
 - B. 'Aa.ishah (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhaa) said: I said O Messenger of Allaah: What should I say if I know which night is Laylatul-Qadr? He said: Say: O Allaah! You are the One who pardons greatly, and loves to pardon, so pardon me. [Saheeh, at-Tirmidhee]
44. What does al-I'tikaaf mean? And is al-I'tikaaf legislated in Islam?
- A. The legal/technical meaning of al-I'tikaaf: It is the confining (of oneself) to the masjid and remaining there with the intention of worshipping Allaah (alone).

- B. The legislation of al-I'tikaaf: The Scholars are in agreement as to the legality of al-I'tikaaf: Because the Prophet (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) used to perform I'tikaaf during the last ten (days and nights) of Ramadhaan right up until his death, then his wives performed I'tikaaf after him. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
45. How many types of I'tikaaf are there? What are they?
- A. The divisions of I'tikaaf: I'tikaaf is divided into that which is recommended and that which is obligatory. As for the recommended, then it is that which the Muslim performs according to the example of the Messenger (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) during the final ten days and nights of Ramadhaan.

- i. Combing his hair, shaving his head, cutting his nails, maintaining the cleanliness of his body, perfuming himself and wearing the best of garments;
 - ii. Leaving (the masjid) for an absolute necessity, such as (answering the call of nature by) urinating and passing stools, and eating and drinking if he is unable to find someone to cater for him.
 - iii. It is required of the person performing the I'tikaaf that he eat, drink and sleep in the masjid making sure to keep it clean.
49. What are the etiquettes of I'tikaaf?
- A. The etiquettes of I'tikaaf: On the authority of 'Aa.ishah (radhi-yAllaahu 'anhaa) who said: The (established) Sunnah for the one performing I'tikaaf is that he not visit the sick, nor follow the funeral procession, nor touch or have intercourse with a woman, nor leave (the masjid) except for an absolute necessity; And I'tikaaf is not to be performed except whilst fasting, nor except in the masjid where the jumu'ah prayer is performed. [Saheeh, al-Bayhaqee and Abu Daawood]

50. What nullifies the I'tikaaf?

- A. Intentionally leaving the masjid for other than an absolute necessity;
- B. Mental instability;
- C. Intoxication;
- D. Menses;
- E. Post partum bleeding.

51. Upon whom the Zakaatul-Fitr is obligatory?

- A. Zakaatul-Fitr is obligatory upon every Muslim individual, whether they are young or old, male or female, free or enslaved. On the authority of Ibn 'Umar (radhiyAllaahu 'anhumaa) who said: The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) made obligatory (the distribution of) Zakaatul-Fitr in Ramadhaan from a Saa' of dates or a Saa' of barley upon the slave and the free, the male and the female, and the young and the old from the Muslims. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

52. What is Saa'?

- A. One Saa` is equal to four Mudd, and one Mudd is equal to the amount held by cupping the two hands together. It is a measure by volume not by weight.

53. What is the wisdom behind the legislation of Zakaatul-Fitr?

- A. The wisdom behind it being legislated: That it be a purifier for the fasting person from that which he may have fallen into from ill speech and sexual intercourse (whilst fasting in Ramadhaan), in addition to it being charity for the poor and needy and the destitute.

54. What should you give as Zakaatul-Fitr?

- A. The legislated amount: One Saa' of:
 - i. Wheat, or
 - ii. Barley, or
 - iii. Raisins / currants / sultanas, or
 - iv. Dates, or
 - v. Cheese, or other than these from that which is considered to be a staple diet.

55. When is the time to distribute Zakaatul-Fitr?

- A. The legislated time for distributing it: The best time for distributing it is before the 'Eed (al-Fitr) prayer, while it is also permissible to distribute it before the day of 'Eed (al-Fitr) by one or two days. However, it is not permissible to delay it until after the 'Eed (al-Fitr) prayer since its distribution after the prayer will be considered as regular charity (and not Zakaatul-Fitr).

56. Who are the people entitled to Zakaatul-Fitr?

- A. The legislated beneficiaries: It is to be distributed to as mentioned in Soorah at-Towbah, ayah 60:
 - i. The destitute (fuqaraa.);
 - ii. The poor and needy (masaakeen);
 - iii. Those employed to assist in its collection and distribution;

- iv. Free the captives;
- v. Those who have been inclined (towards embracing Islaam);
- vi. Those who are in debt;
- vii. For Allaah's cause (fee sabeel-lillaah);
- viii. The wayfarer (a traveller who does not possess the means to return to his land).

57. How do you pray the 'Eed Prayer?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: The takbeer (the saying of Allaahu Akbar) for (the 'Eed) al-Fitr (prayer) is (to be done) seven times at (the beginning of) the first (rak'ah) and five times at (the beginning of) the second (rak'ah) and the (standard) recitation (of the prayer) is to be done for each (rak'ah) after (the takbeer). [Hasan, Abu Daawood] The prayer of the two 'Eeds (al-Fitr and al-Adh.haa) are legislated as being two rak'ahs each. One pronounces the takbeer seven times at the beginning of the first rak'ah and five times at the beginning of the second rak'ah. Thereafter, (soorah) al-Faatihah is recited and (after it, another soorah from) what is easy.

58. Where should 'Eed Prayer be performed?

- A. The 'Eed prayer is to be performed in the musallaa, and that is a place just outside of town. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) would leave home and make his way to the musallaa for both the 'Eed (al-Fitr and al-Adh.haa) prayers. The young and the women and the youth would be with him, and even the menstruating women who were legally excused (from the prayer). al-Haafith Ibn Hajar al-'Asqalaanee said in Fat.h al-Baaree: And for (the 'Eed prayers) they would depart to the musallaa, and it would not be held in the masjid except out of necessity.

59. Are women allowed to go out to 'Eed Prayer?

- A. The Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) ordered us to make sure the women come out (of their homes) to attend the ('Eed) al-Fitr and al-Adh.haa (prayers), they being:
 - i. The captives;
 - ii. Those upon their menses;
 - iii. The young unmarried virgins.
- B. As for those upon their menses, then they are to abstain from the prayer itself and suffice with benefiting from listening to the khutbah (sermon). I said O Messenger of Allaah, (and what if) one of us does not have a jilbaab (loose fitting outer garment worn over clothing)? He said: Then her sister is to provide her with a jilbaab). [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]

60. What should you do before you leave for 'Eed Prayer?

- A. On the day of ('Eed) al-Fitr, the Messenger of Allaah (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) would not leave (for the 'Eed prayer) until he had eaten an odd number of dates. [al-Bukhaaree]

61. When do you begin the Takbeer of 'Eed al-Fitr? And when do you End it?

- A. One would begin the pronouncing of the takbeer on the night before 'Eed al-Fitr and cease to do so after the 'Eed prayer is over. Allaah (Ta'aalaa) says: (He wants that you) must complete the same number (of days), and that you must magnify Allaah [i.e. to say takbeer] for having guided you so that you may be grateful to Him. [Soorah al-Baqarah: 185]
62. What are some innovations during the 'Eed?
- A. Visiting the graves: It has become a habit to visit the graves on the days of 'Eed, and there is no evidence to support this during this period.
- B. Free mixing: The free mixing of men and women at the graves. He (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: I have not left behind me a fitnah (trial) more harmful for the men than the (fitnah of the) women. [al-Bukhaaree and Muslim]
- C. Recitation of the Qur.aan: It is prohibited to recite the Qur.aan at the graves. He (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) said: Do not render your homes as graveyards. Certainly, the house within which Soorah al-Bakarah is recited is protected from the (evil of) Shaytaan. [Saheeh Muslim]
63. What should you recite when you visit the grave?
- A. And the Messenger (sal-Allaahu 'alayhe wa sallam) taught his companions to recite the following upon entering the graveyard: Peace be upon you all, O inhabitants of the graves, amongst the believers and the Muslims. Verily we will, Allaah willing, be united with you, may Allaah have mercy upon those already called and those still delayed among us all. We ask Allaah for well-being for us and you (from the punishment). [Saheeh Muslim]

The End

All Praise belongs to Allah, May Allah send His Salah and Salam on our Prophet sallallahu alayhe wa sallam.
